

Statement of participation

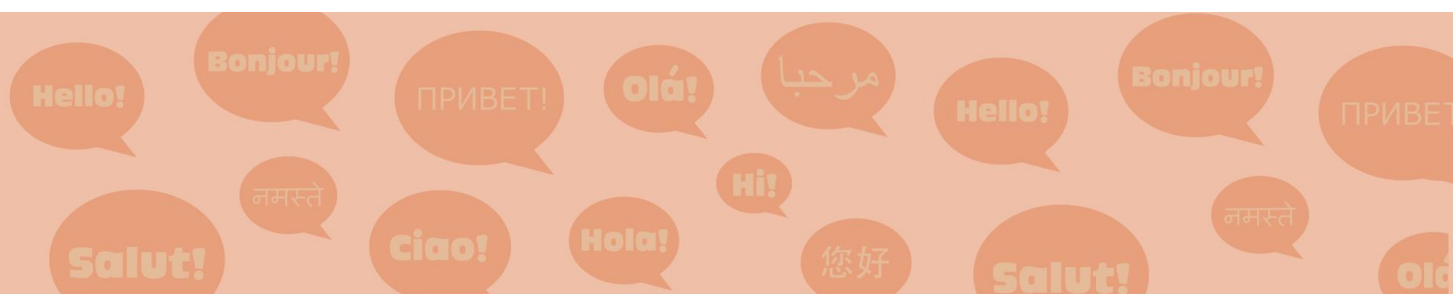

Guest user

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Business English: Making decisions

This 5-hour free course explored the language difficulties and decision-making processes involved when relocating a business to the UK.

Issue date: 14 March 2022

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/english-language/business-english-making-decisions/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: L550_2

Business English: Making decisions

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/english-language/business-english-making-decisions/content-section-0>

Course summary

--- Please note: This course is due to be archived on Wednesday 21st December. You can study the course up until this date. For learners who have completed the course, the Statement of Participation will remain in your learner records in your OpenLearn profile. --- Do you want to relocate to the UK? This free course, Business English: Making decisions, will help you with the language difficulties that can arise while providing assistance with the practicalities of the decision-making processes involved and the consultation that is necessary to ensure employees are kept informed.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand the process of decision making, involving consultation with staff and drawing up a plan of action.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Overview

Section 2

Comparing options

Section 3

Communicating the decision

Section 4

Additional resources