OpenLearn | Free learning from The Open University

The Open University

Statement of participation

Guest user

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Welfare reconstruction

This 1-hour free course examined the approach adopted by Tony Blair and New Labour to welfare reconstruction in the UK.

Issue date: 15 March 2022

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
https://www.open.edu/openlearn/society-politics-law/politics/welfare-reconstruction/content-section-0

COURSE CODE: D218_8

Welfare reconstruction

https://www.open.edu/openlearn/society-politics-law/politics/welfare-reconstruction/content-section-0

Course summary

Please note: As part of a review of content, this course will be deleted from OpenLearn on Sunday 5th of September 2021.This free course examines the approach adopted by Tony Blair and New Labour to welfare reconstruction in the United Kingdom. Using extracts from speeches made by Tony Blair, you will listen to a discussion on how the Welfare State was remade by the 'New Right'.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- describe New Labour's approach to Welfare Reconstruction.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

New Labour's approach welfare reconstruction