Case studies in the Toolkit
Contents

Case studies in the Toolkit 3
Case studies in the Toolkit

- Case study 1: Mr Dumee helps Marie regain her self-confidence in a Mauritius school
- Case study 2: When mistakes give the best grades in a school in Niger
- Case study 3: Mrs Dalok’s school board meeting at a public primary school in Togo: 1: Adapting the physical space within the school and the classroom
- Case study 4: Mrs Dalok’s school board meeting at a public primary school in Togo: 2: Welcoming pupils with specific needs
- Case study 5: Mr Sy organises group work in a school in Senegal
- Case study 6: Mrs Touré’s instructions in a primary school in Mali
- Case study 7: Mr Auckbar uses the Creole language in his Form I class in a school in Port Louis in Mauritius
- Case study 8: Teachers adapt activities to meet some of their pupils’ needs
- Case study 8a: Mr Sadio adapts a science lesson for Hadiatou in a primary school in Guinea
- Case study 8b: The day Gilou got 10 out of 10 in arithmetic, at a school in Togo
- Case study 8c: Mr Sarré, a teacher in Senegal, talks about the spelling test he is preparing for Antoinette
- Case study 8d: Talented children have special needs too, in a school in Mali
- Case study 9: A group of student teachers create a resource centre at the NTI Regional Centre in Kaduna, Nigeria
- Case study 10: The day Gilou got 10 out of 10 in arithmetic, in a school in Togo
- Case study 11: Constructive feedback that will help improve the answers to a class test in a primary school in Ghana
- Case study 12: The advice from Mrs Dalok’s school board at a public primary school in Togo: 3: Support during class lessons
- Case study 13: The results of a group of teachers’ brainstorming session on the advantages of using group work in the classroom
- Case study 14: Allassane, a profoundly deaf young man from Senegal, shares some of his experiences at school
- Case study 15: Idrissa, a child with albinism, talks of the support received during his school years in Zambia
- Case study 16: Lélé has a slight mental deficiency. He is in CE2 in a state primary school in Boukoki in Niger. Sani, his brother, talks about what he does in his free time
- Case study 17: Ms Sajiv organises a show with her class in a school in Mauritius
- Case study 18: The reflections of Mr Dogo, a teacher at a primary school in Mango, Togo

Return to Inclusive education toolkit page