

ARROWS

FROM A

TEMPERANCE QUIVER.

BY THE
REV. JOSEPH EVANS,
CARMARTHEN.

LONDON:
JOHN KEMPSTER & Co., 9 & 10, ST. BRIDE'S AVENUE,
FLEET STREET, E.C.
CARMARTHEN: W. E. JONES, CHEMIST, DARK-GATE.

CONTENTS.

| ARROW | PAGE |
|---|------|
| I. Total Abstinence as an Antidote to the Social Evils of Drunkenness | 1 |
| II. The Injury done by Drink to Religion | 15 |
| III. Paul's Advice to Timothy | 29 |
| IV. Wine a Gift of God | 43 |
| V. The Marriage in Cana of Galilee | 56 |
| VI. The Use of Wine Discountenanced and Forbidden in the Word of God | 69 |
| VII. Total Abstinence Countenanced and Urged in the Scriptures | 81 |
| VIII. Scriptural Instances of Drunkenness | 94 |
| IX. The Punishment of Drunkenness | 107 |
| X. Total Abstinence subservient to the Sabbath | 120 |
| XI. Total Abstinence and the Church of Christ | 134 |
| XII. Drinking Habits a Hindrance to the Gospel—Total Abstinence its Handmaid | 148 |
| XIII. An Appeal to Christian People | 162 |
| XIV. Nursing Mothers | 176 |
| XV. Caught at Last! | 190 |
| XVI. When will Men take Warning? | 203 |
| XVII. Strange Facts | 216 |
| XVIII. Temperance on the Harvest Field | 230 |
| XIX. "Not I, indeed! why should I?" | 243 |
| XX. Give up the Drink, friend! | 256 |