

Plate 5.3 Graph of building activity in Africa.. Note that the 50 year periods are arbitrary and monuments that date to a range which crosses the boundaries have been equally distributed to the periods either side of the boundary. Note also that the graph only represents buildings which can be dated from their inscriptions, and so it represents a very small proportion of building that took place in the city.

