

How has this project made you think differently about participation, citizenship and migration?

Is there such a thing as freedom. If so what is it there is it. Can complete freedom of movement, speech, dress, expression of self exist?

fferently about the question Who Are We Great film and discussion about freedom to move - Alia Syed hierarchies of citizenship and belonging and ~~who~~ how who we are enables greater or lesser freedom of movement.

very thought provoking ow has this project made you think ifferently about the question Who Are W

Excellent discussion on a very interesting and evocative piece of work. Bringing together the different perspective - law, political sciences + sociology - worked very well. Made me think about the difficulties of navigating legal landscapes and the absurdity of migratory legislation.

~~It changed~~

it was very helpful and raised important points for my project I am researching

Thank you

Relevant, and ~~much~~ absolute must to keep the dialogue going and bring out some topics considered a 'taboo' almost in today's tech-world.

How has this project made you think differently about participation, citizenship and migration?

IT'S ~~RAISED~~ MADE ME WONDER ABOUT RESPONSIBILITY - WHY WE DON'T QUESTION WHY PEOPLE RISK THEIR LIVES TO GET HERE AND HOW WE'RE ONLY OBSESSED WITH THE END RESULT -
