

*The boy the parson Prebiter jid,
 The Curate asks no alle Brawd,
 For a Faculty and Ford book
 For a few Brawd-but are all employd.*

THE WELCH CURATE.

*His Wife at Washing 'Tis his Lot
 To paste the Turneps with the Pot
 He mads and baws has seen said out,
 And evke the kittle with the Pot.*

Printed and Sold by J. Smith, in Great Britain, and by J. Smith, in all Parts of the World.

The Welch Curate

(Source: British Museum.)
 From: The remaking of Wales in the eighteenth century