

Evaluating your strategy and presenting outcomes

How effective have your skills development strategy and your presentation of outcomes been? What worked well and what not so well? Which factors had the greatest effect on your achievement of what you set out to do?

How would you assess your own progress and performance in developing your skills? Where do you feel you have made the greatest progress? What skills do you plan to work on in the future; will you tackle them in the same way or differently?