

Background to learner-centred education: Values and beliefs

- Valuing all individuals and the experiences they bring to the classroom
- Believing that all children can learn given the right support
- Valuing a range of skills and competencies
- Seeing yourself, the educator, as a facilitator of learning and a learner yourself