

This photostory has been realized by 4 representatives of the MRU (Makushi Reserch Unit) in collaboration with the Open University U116 Amazon project.

MRU staff:

Poulette Allicock (from Surama village)
Benita Roberts ((from Rupertee village)
Ascenia Xavier (from Wowetta village)
Jordan Joseph (from Kwatamang village)

Facilitator : Claudia Nuzzo (Open University)

Location: North Rupununi (Guyana)

Date: January - February 2012

HOW TO MAKE A TRADITIONAL HAMMOCK

Rupertee village, North Rupununi

cotton farm

the cotton is picked

This is brown cotton

white cotton plant

drying in the sun

remove the seeds

spinning the cotton

double roll to make the cotton ball

weaving the cotton on the frame

That's a very old traditional job

Let's open!

stretch the hammock

enjoy your makushi hammock

Back stage

