

Understanding Parkinson's for health and social care staff

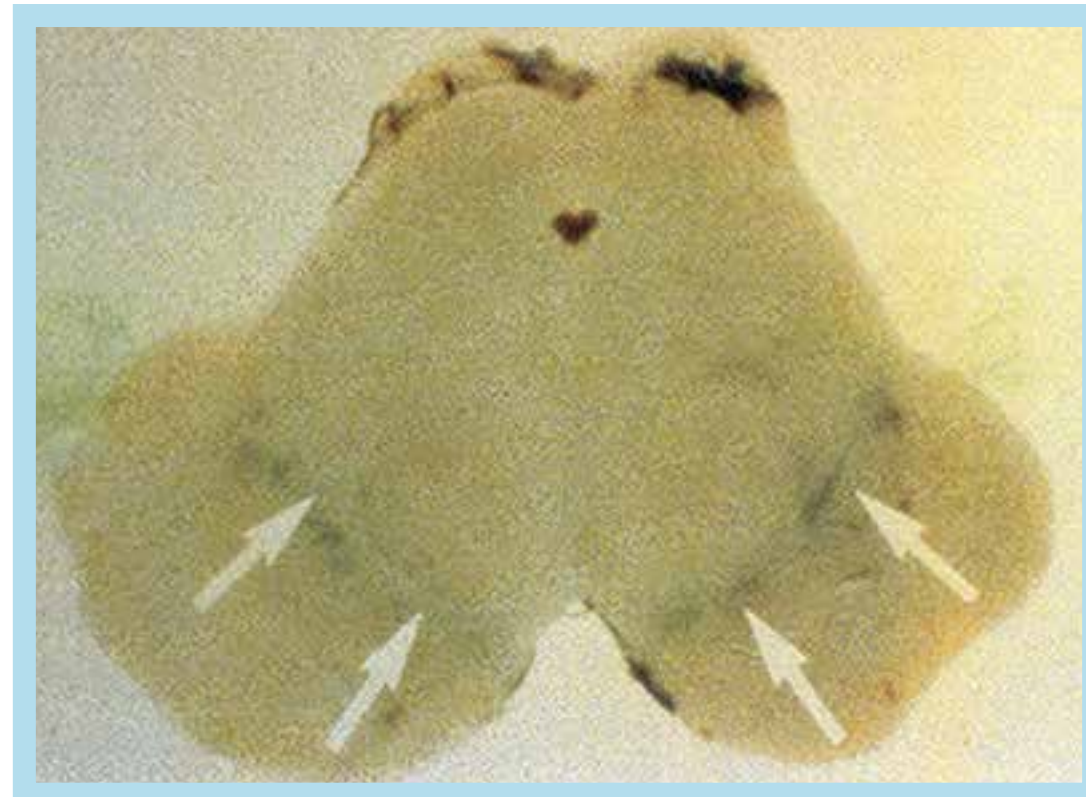

What causes Parkinson's?

The middle section of the brain with dopamine present.

The middle section of the brain without dopamine present.