

Using group work

In group work, students learn to listen to each other, explain their ideas and work cooperatively. Group work adds variety to lessons

Some examples of group work are:

- Presentations
- Problem solving
- Creating an artifact or product
- Differentiated tasks
- Discussion

How could you plan group work in your lessons?

 Access TESSA OER at www.tessafrica.net

 Connect with us at facebook.com/TESSAnews

 Email us TESSA@open.ac.uk