

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

Focus: Being a professional

Synopsis

It is prize giving day and Ejike is the MC. As he is about to start the presentations, he receives very sad news on his GSM. He carries on with the show nevertheless for the sake of the children. He cannot help weeping but makes it look like they are tears of joy. The children come forward excited.

After the prizes are given, Mvo who has come on stage to thank Ejike wonders why he is still weeping. Ejike announces that he heard that he had lost his Aunty Beatrice while doing the presentations but had carried on because he hadn't wanted it to affect the children.
