

What is appropriate and inappropriate behaviour?

No	Types of harm (Definitions in Week 2)	Appropriate behaviour to prevent harm “Staff and organisational representatives should...”	Inappropriate behaviour to prevent harm “Staff and organisational representatives should...”
1	Physical abuse	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Work in pairs when working with children and vulnerable people 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not be alone or behind closed doors when working with a child or vulnerable person Not hit, strike, throw objects, pinch, kick or cause any form of bodily harm
2	Emotional abuse	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Always work with others respectfully and patiently 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not raise their voice, use language that is derogatory or use facial or hand gestures that can create fear, intimidation or marginalisation
3	Sexual abuse
4	Sexual exploitation
5	Traditional harmful practices (e.g. early and forced marriage of victims of sexual violence with those who have committed these acts against them)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not marry under 18-year-olds Not undertake any traditional practices which are harmful
6	Neglect (omission to act)
7	Harassment
8	Sexual harassment
9	Bullying		