STARTING YOUR APPLICATION

Most universities around the would can be applied to directly online via the university website (n.b UK is notable exception for undergraduate courses).

Students are expected to fill out an online application including uploading required documents and writing personal statements. In most cases, universities require students to consider the following things, but not limited to:

📋 Application Requirements Checklist +

Register an account and login to start your application

Personal information

- Name (no last name for Myanmar nationals)
- Residential address
- Date and place of birth
- Nationality (passport should be ready in hand because some universities require to upload a copy of passport first page)
- Marital status (some university applications require)
- Email and phone number

Education background

Work or volunteering experiences

(for undergraduate applications you may not need to show thins but for postgraduate courses you may need to have at least 1 or 2 years experience depending on university)

Selecting subject or major to study

(can choose up to 3 or more depending on the university)

Personal statements setting out your reasons for wanting to study the course

(universities require students at least 2-3 essays typically with 100-150 minimum and 300 maximum words each)

1-2 references

(this can typically be one of your teachers, and one from your professional networks)