

OER is... Flexible!

You can really tailor it to your needs as a teacher. Use the components you want to use, leave the others behind, or use all of them. Teachers can take activities and copy them, replace names, replace items—they're completely free to do that with our materials. It only makes them better if they're adapted.